ORAL ORDER

(Passed on 16th January, 2006)

The following order of the Court was passed by

D.R. DESHMUKH, J. :

The only point urged in this appeal is that the compensation awarded by the learned MACT is on the lower side. However, on a perusal of the impugned award we find that neither any medical evidence was adduced nor any proof of permanent disability suffered furnished. On a careful consideration of the impugned award, we find that the compensation awarded by the learned MACT does not call for any interference. The appeal is devoid of merit and it is accordingly dismissed at the admission stage. No costs.
